

Women Voters to Begin Know-Your-Town Survey

"Know Your Town Government" will be the topic of the first series of discussions to be held next week by the newly-organized Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance. A part of its overall Know-Your-Town study program. Special emphasis will be placed on the city charter framework for elective offices and election machinery of local elections.

In addition to exploring the city charter, the group will hear a presentation of pros and cons on the ballot measures to appear on the April 10th ballot. One of the functions of the League is to present impartial facts for and against all ballot measures and to answer questions based on research on these issues, according to Mrs. W. L. Geissert, voters service chairman.

Three study units have been scheduled for next week as follows: Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. R. Berwanger, 5617 Andrus Ave.; Wednesday at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. S. R. Saunders, 5128 Merrill St.; and Thursday at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Edward Garwir, 414 Paseo de la Playa, Redondo Beach.

Meetings are open to the public. Persons interested in obtaining additional information about the League are invited to contact Mrs. Robert Christensen, membership chairman.

... Ann Landers

I never would have believed this could happen but it did, and I am — ALSO STUCK

Dear Ann: So "Just a Boob" advises young men to look at the homes the girls come from before they marry — well, I'd like to suggest that the girls look at the young men's homes. It may give her an idea of what she'll have to put with.

My husband's mother is a slob and he is a carbon copy of her. Everything goes on the floor—socks, shorts, ties, damp towels. He puts cigar butts in the dinner plates and wet glasses on mahogany tables. He never hangs up a suit-coat or puts anything away.

He is more work than our three kids. So, girls, if you want to know what your husband is going to be like after marriage — go look at his mother. — 24 HOUR DUTY.

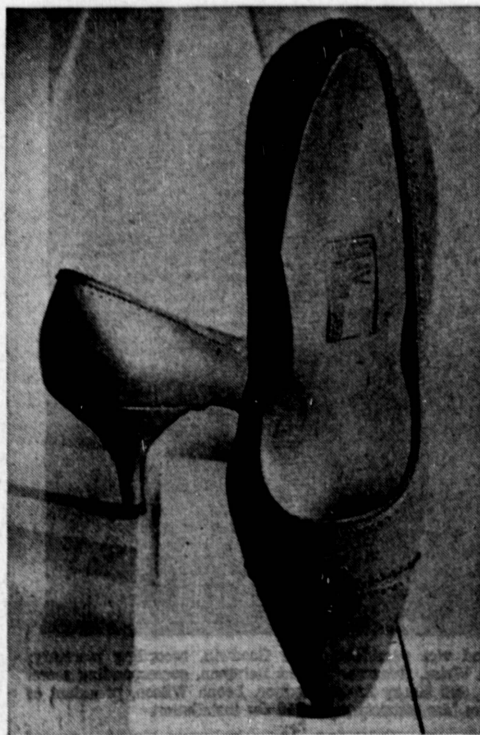

So — dear readers, a small, limp, wet noodle for generalizing. There are indeed exceptions and I think every one of them must have written.

To learn the boob-traps of teenage drinking, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright, 1962. Field Enterprises, Inc.

Bake Sale Set

The Hi-Toppers, sophomore girls of Torrance High, will stage two bake sales Saturday from 9 a.m. until 12:30. One sale will be under way at 1311 Sartori and the other at 1421 Marcelina.

Proceeds from the sale will go to a fund for a trip to Newport Beach.

TOP FASHION . . . Among the new styles for spring in the Caressa Shoe line to be shown at the May Co. South Bay on April 4 from 2:30 until 5:30 p.m. will be the Revere, one flash of gleaming red calfskin with a narrow band of pinked red leather as its only trim.

Stylist to Show New Shoe Trends

Miss Bette Taicher, designer-stylist of Caressa Shoes, will appear in the May Co. Shoe Salons to introduce the Styles for Spring, 1962, which will be modeled in conjunction with her appearance. The entire Caressa collection exemplifies their favorite theme "so soft . . . so pretty" which is in keeping with the return of the feminine silhouette this spring. Styled around beautiful interpretations of the "just less than high" heel the styles also emphasize the fun, young styling fashion decrees for spring with color that goes from wild to mild, toes that gently curve or snip off with a neat square, mellow leathers combine with textures to compliment simplicity of design. In all the Caressa Collection for Spring, 1962 is the utmost in versatility, as refreshing as spring itself.

Miss Taicher will be at the May Co. South Bay on Wednesday, April 4, from 2:30 until 5:30 to show the Caressa collection for the new season.

Weekend Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jennings of Pomona spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, 20909 La Salle Ave.

Ham Dinner Next Sunday

On Sunday, April 1, St. Catherine Labouré mothers will serve the last ham dinner of the school year in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. in Torrance. Dinner will be served from 3 until 7:30 p.m.

Chairmen in charge of the dinner are: Mrs. Winfred Melvold and Mrs. John Vaughn of the sixth grade and Mrs. Louis Corso and Mrs. James Walker of the third grade.

The menu will consist of baked ham, potatoes au gratin, string beans, lettuce wedged salad with French dressing, hot buttered rolls and chocolate or white cake. Tea, coffee and milk will also be served.

The family rate plan is being used again and will give quite a savings for larger families.

Mrs. Peter Lavelle, home and school chairman, extends an invitation to the public to attend.
